

01st March 2022

POLITICS:

-Muhwezi scoffs at opposition over collapsed censure motion.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Gunmen run away with documents related to Masaka crude pipeline claims.

NATIONAL:

-China puts 'aggressive' terms on Entebbe airport loan.

COURT:

-Former Red Cross boss Nataka jailed for embezzlement.

BUSINESS:

-Uganda showcases bark cloth, Ankole long-horned cattle in US museum.

SPORTS:

-Liverpool wins epic penalty shootout for Carabao Cup.

WORLD NEWS:

-Russia, Ukraine concludes first-round talks without clear breakthrough.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Muhwezi scoffs at opposition over collapsed censure motion; security minister, Maj Gen Jim Katugugu Muhwezi has scoffed at the opposition MPs after failing to secure enough signatures to push through a censure motion against him. Muhwezi said he was happy that only 88 MPs out of the required 176 of the 529 MPs in 11th parliament signed the censure motion. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Gunmen run away with documents related to Masaka crude pipeline claims; unidentified thugs have broken into the offices of Community Transformation Foundation Network, a Non-Government Organization that is helping persons affected by the East African Crude Oil Pipeline project get compensation. Story

NATIONAL;

China puts 'aggressive' terms on Entebbe airport loan; a top Chinese lender has imposed "aggressive" repayment terms on a $200 million loan to expand Uganda's Entebbe international airport, US-based research lab Aid Data said Monday, criticizing the bank for forcing the government to repay its debt before funding public services. Story

GRAFT;

Former Red Cross boss Nataka jailed for embezzlement; the Anti-Corruption Court in Kampala has sentenced Richard Michael Nataka, the former Secretary General of the Uganda Red Cross Society to serve seven years in jail for embezzling more than sh1 billion. Story

BUSINESS;

Uganda showcases bark cloth, Ankole long-horned cattle in US museum; the backcloth and the Ankole long-horned cattle have been showcased at the African Textile Museum in Stone Crest, Atlanta, Georgia as a part of Uganda's cultural heritage. Story

SPORTS;

Liverpool wins epic penalty shootout for Carabao Cup; all 11 of the Reds' takers, including Caoimhin Kelleher, converted their spot-kicks before Kepa Arrizabalaga blazed his over the crossbar to seal the fifth major trophy of Jürgen Klopp's glorious reign. Story

WORLD NEWS;

Russia, Ukraine concludes first-round talks without clear breakthrough; Russia and Ukraine concluded on Monday their first round of negotiations in Belarus with no clear breakthrough. The talks are certainly a positive signal, observed analysts, but the negotiation process would be rather complicated. Story

And finally; No workable solution yet for Ugandans in Ukraine; the Ministry of Foreign Affairs says the government has not yet got a workable solution for Ugandans stuck in Ukraine. The number of Ugandans stuck in Ukraine remains unknown. Story

Today's scripture; Psalm 119:81

ESKOMorning quote; "Alone we can do so little. Together we can do so much."

By- Helen Keller

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD