

12th April 2022

POLITICS;

-IGG spends only 20% of budget to probe cases.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Kamya orders forensic audit into UBOS operations.

NATIONAL;

-450,000 Ugandans now stuck with old passports.

REGIONAL;

-DR Congo security concerns top on the agenda as country formally joins the EAC.

COURT;

-Magistrate loses bid to block sexual harassment trial.

BUSINESS;

-Uganda import rule boosts Kenya car dealers.

SPORTS;

-Three things we learned from the Premier League.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

IGG spends only 20% of budget to probe cases; the Inspector General of Government, Ms Beti Kamya, while appearing before Parliament's Committee of Legal and Parliamentary Affairs on Monday, said the Inspectorate spends 80 percent of the budget on running the institution and in the end fails to carry on its mandate. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Kamya orders forensic audit into UBOS operations; IGG wants auditors to ascertain whether more than Shs1b earmarked for the implementation of the third phase of the Energy for Rural Transformation survey was spent appropriately. Story

NATIONAL;

450,000 Ugandans now stuck with old passports; about half a million Ugandans are unable to travel outside the country because they have not successfully applied and secured the new East African Community e-passport.

Story

REGIONAL;

DR Congo security concerns top on the agenda as country formally joins the EAC; leaders of the EAC on Friday celebrated the formal entry of the Democratic Republic of Congo into the bloc, as President Felix Tshisekedi used the occasion to voice Kinshasa's security concerns and push for their prioritization on the region's agenda. Story

COURT;

Magistrate loses bid to block sexual harassment trial; the High court has dismissed with costs an application in which grade one magistrate, Belmos Opiyo attempted to stop his trial by the Judicial Service Commission for alleged sexual harassment. Story

BUSINESS;

Uganda import rule boosts Kenya car dealers; Uganda has tightened import conditions for vehicles aged over nine years, a move that is expected to disrupt the automobile black market in Kenya. Story

SPORTS;

Three things we learned from the Premier League; the Premier League title race is on a knife-edge after Manchester City retained pole position with a pulsating 2-2 draw against their closest challengers Liverpool. Story

And finally; Wives attack mistresses of cheating husbands in demo; as early as 7am yesterday, the women, who claimed to be from the Association of Wives, an unregistered body, were seen standing along different streets of Kampala with placards reading: "Side chicks [mistresses] are spoiling our marriage, Kameeza money [upkeep cash] should be increased, and wives also deserve trips to Dubai". Story

Today's scripture; Psalms 130

ESKOMorning quote; "This country will not be a good place for any of us to live in unless we make it a good place for all of us to live in." By- Theodore Roosevelt

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD