

13th April 2022

POLITICS:

-Kayihura, Sejusa to retire this July.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Fuel prices remain high months after govt assurance on stability.

NATIONAL:

-Leaders of Muslim factions in Uganda reconcile, sign deal to form one body.

REGIONAL:

-South Sudan takes key step towards unifying armed forces.

COURT:

-High court declines to block crude oil pipeline project.

HEALTH:

-Uganda runs out of Covid patients.

BUSINESS:

-Uganda to be blacklisted over money laundering.

SPORTS:

-Benzema denies Chelsea epic comeback to put holders out.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Kayihura, Sejusa to retire this July; former spymaster Gen David Sejusa, who first applied to leave the army in 1996, and ex-police chief Kale Kayihura, another four-star general battling charges in a military court, have reportedly been allowed to retire from the UPDF in July this year. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Fuel prices remain high months after govt assurance on stability; Ugandans continue to bear the brunt of high fuel prices despite assurance from the government three months ago that they would stabilize. Story

NATIONAL;

Leaders of Muslim factions in Uganda reconcile, sign deal to form one body; the delegation headed by the Mufti of Uganda, Sheikh Shaban Ramathan Mubajje was at State House to brief Mr. Museveni about an agreement reached between the factions and uniting as one body. Story

REGIONAL;

South Sudan takes key step towards unifying armed forces; South Sudan's government announced on Tuesday the creation of a unified armed forces command, implementing a key provision of the 2018 peace deal that observers hope will ease the country's recovery from years of war. Story

COURT;

High court declines to block crude oil pipeline project; the High court in Kampala has declined to order an injunction against ongoing procurements in the oil and gas sector. Blocking the procurement would have halted the ongoing efforts to develop the infrastructure needed to get oil out of the ground. Story

HEALTH;

Uganda runs out of Covid patients; statistics from the Ministry of Health indicate that the country has only two hospitalized Covid-19 patients, a sharp decline when compared to 435 who were in admission on January 16. Story

BUSINESS;

Uganda to be blacklisted over money laundering; Uganda's financial industry risks being blacklisted by international systems for failure to put in place measures that can effectively prevent financial crimes like money laundering. Story

SPORTS;

Benzema denies Chelsea epic comeback to put holders out; Real Madrid reached the UEFA Champions League semi-finals with a remarkable 5-4 aggregate success after extra time against Chelsea, who were on the verge of one of the competition's greatest turnarounds when leading 3-0 late in normal time. Story

And finally; Oulanyah's father needs counselling, not police summons; the Minister of ICT and National Guidance, Dr Chris Baryomunsi has advised Uganda Police Force to counsel Mr Nathan Okori who has just lost his son, former Speaker of Parliament Jacob Oulanyah, instead of summoning him for questioning. Story

Today's scripture; Philippians 4:6-7

ESKOMorning quote; "Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all of the darkness." By- Desmond Tutu

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD