

20th April 2022

POLITICS;

-Oulanyah's son is NRM sole candidate for Omoro by-election.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Cnoc applies for electricity license.

NATIONAL;

-Appointment of Central Bank governor long overdue.

REGIONAL;

-1,000 Congolese accept refugee status in Uganda.

HEALTH;

-Nurses clash as medical records staff call off strike.

BUSINESS;

-Parliament wants sports betting banned during day.

SPORTS;

-Ronaldo announces death of baby son.

AFRICA;

-South Africa floods a national disaster

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Oulanyah's son is NRM sole candidate for Omoro by-election; President Museveni who doubles as the ruling NRM chairman has directed that the party flag for Omoro County by-election be given to Andrew Ojok Oulanyah, the son of the late Speaker Jacob Oulanyah. Read More

ENERGY NEWS;

Cnoc applies for electricity license; CNOOC Uganda Ltd has formally applied to government for a license to generate and sell electricity from the gas resources at its Kingfisher oil field. The company sent its license application to the ERA with the intention of installing a 39.1MW gas to power project at its Kingfisher oil field. Read More

NATIONAL;

Appointment of Central Bank governor long overdue; despite the position's influence on the country's economy, it appears the appointment of a substantive 11th BoU governor is not on the appointing authority's priority list, according to analysts. Read More

REGIONAL;

1,000 Congolese accept refugee status in Uganda; the government of Uganda, in partnership with the UNHCR, has scheduled tomorrow as the day to relocate about 1,000 Congolese refugees to Nakivale Refugee Settlement Camp after they voluntarily accepted refugee status in Uganda. Read More

HEALTH;

Nurses clash as medical records staff call off strike; a section of nurses accuses the leadership of the Uganda Nurses and Midwives Union of incompetence and being compromised by government to frustrate the planned strike. Read More

BUSINESS;

Parliament wants sports betting banned during day; lawmakers on the Committee on Finance have suggested that government considers banning sports betting during the day as a means of encouraging productivity and creativity among the population. Read More

SPORTS;

Ronaldo announces death of baby son; Cristiano Ronaldo and his partner Georgina Rodriguez announced on Monday that their newborn baby son has died. Read More

AFRICA;

South Africa floods a national disaster; South Africa President Cyril Ramaphosa on Monday evening declared a national state of disaster to provide relief to KwaZulu-Natal and the Eastern Cape which had been extensively damaged by floods. Read More

And finally; Man gets his first born at 83; Mzee Yosia Mwesigye, 83, has received his first-born child, after the passing of his 79-year-old wife who left no child. Mzee Mwesigye waited for 57 years in vain to have a child in his previous marriage. While society places high value on childbearing, Mzee Mwesigye has no regrets though about his late wife's failure to bear him a child. Read More

Today's scripture; Romans 15:13

ESKOMorning quote; "Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid." By ~ Albert Einstein

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD