

04th Jan 2019

POLITICS;

-Kadaga to FDC, My House, my rules.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Foreign debt, high oil prices hit East Africa markets.

NATIONAL;

-KCCA to focus on infrastructure.

REGIONAL;

-Kenyans protest tough passport renewal rules.

GRAFT;

-NFA official suspended over illegal logging

EDUCATION;

-Sacked Makerere lecturers ordered to refund salaries.

BUSINESS;

-Uganda beats other EA states in exports to Kenya in 2018.

SPORTS;

-Mutebi wary of Police encounter

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL

Kadaga to FDC: My House, my rules; the speaker of parliament Rebecca Kadaga has maintained her earlier stance to maintain the parliamentary committee of CSASE leadership after expiry of their tenure. The committee led by Bugweri MP Abdu Katuntu & Bukedea Woman MP Anita Among is currently probing the irregular closure and sale of seven commercial banks. Story

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Foreign debt, high oil prices hit East Africa markets; EA stock markets faced a difficult year and the situation is unlikely to change in 2019, with analysts citing the region's increased exposure to foreign debt as a risk. Story

NATIONAL;

KCCA to focus on infrastructure; Kampala Capital City Authority's acting executive director Andrew Mubiru Kitaka has said KCCA will focus on development of infrastructure to ease mobility as one of its major plans for the city in the first six months. Story

REGIONAL;

Kenyans protest tough passport renewal rules; Kenya's Immigration department Thursday came under fire from the online community after citizens protested stringent requirements for applicants seeking e-passports, whose August 31 acquisition deadline is fast-approaching. Story

GRAFT;

NFA official suspended over illegal logging; the National Forestry Authority has suspended one of its officers for looking on, as illegal logging takes place in forest reserves under his supervision. Story

EDUCATION;

Sacked Makerere lecturers ordered to refund salaries; Makerere University Vice Chancellor Prof Barnabas Nawangwe yesterday asked the sacked lecturers who had absconded from duty to return the public funds they received for no work done. Story

BUSINESS;

Uganda beats other EA states in exports to Kenya in 2018; Uganda exported more goods to Kenya than any other country in the East African region in the period running between January and September 2018. Story

SPORTS;

Mutebi wary of Police encounter; for KCCA manager Mike Mutebi and Police coach Abdallah Mubiru, this afternoon's StarTimes Uganda Premier League tie is going to be one personal encounter. Story

And finally; Condom shortage hits Gulu town; Gulu town is facing an acute shortfall of condoms, with all major condom distribution points running out of stock. The crisis which started over the Christmas period worsened even further over the New Year - affecting supply to most free condom dispensers in public places in and around the town. Story

Today's scripture; 1st John 1:9

ESKOMorning quote; "Sometimes it's worth not listening to famous rich people, but to those who live their lives out of the limelight." By- Chris Matyszezyk

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD