

03rd July 2018

POLITICS;

-AU summit overshadowed by 'security failings' in Sahel after attacks.

ENERGY IN THE NEW;

-Libya oil exports grind to halt in political tussle.

NATIONAL;

-Kadaga urges gov't to improve investment incentives.

COURT;

-Uganda Social Media tax challenged in court.

HEALTH;

-WHO gives Shs1b health supplies to Kamuli, Iganga districts.

BUSINESS;

-Airtel Africa profits triple to $154.5m.

SPORTS;

-Boxer Mustafa Katende collapses in training, dies.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICS;

AU summit overshadowed by 'security failings' in Sahel after attacks; French President Emmanuel Macron, making an exceptional appearance at an African Union summit, was expected to discuss hurdles facing a five-nation French-backed anti-terror unit, the "G5 Sahel" force. Read More

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Libya oil exports grind to halt in political tussle; the crisis has slashed production, previously estimated at one million barrels per day, by 850,000 bpd, said the National Oil Corporation run by the Tripoli-based Government of National Accord. The NOC said all exports have been suspended from the oil crescent in northeast Libya after operations were frozen at the terminals of Al-Hariga and Zweitina. Read More

NATIONAL;

Kadaga urges gov't to improve investment incentives; the Speaker of Parliament Rebecca Kadaga has asked government to re-evaluate the investment policy to improve incentives for Ugandans in the diaspora to invest more in the country. Read More

COURT;

Uganda Social Media tax challenged in court; the petition, filed by a team of young advocates under their Cyber Law Initiative (U) Limited and four individuals, Mr Opio Bill Daniel, Mr Baguma Moses, Mr Okiror Emmanuel and Mr Silver Kayondo against the attorney-general, is challenging the Constitutionality of the $0.05 (US$200) daily charge for access to social media platforms. Read More

HEALTH;

WHO gives Shs1b health supplies to Kamuli, Iganga districts; Dr Olive Sentumbwe, WHO family health and population advisor, said health workers have been trained and have been given books to refer while using the equipment to ensure proper service delivery. Read More

BUSINESS;

Airtel Africa profits triple to $154.5m; Africa revenues grew by 10.7 per cent year-on-year led by strong growth in data and Airtel money transaction value. Mobile data traffic has grown by 88 per cent to 70 billion megabytes in the quarter as compared with 37 billion MBs in the corresponding quarter last year. Read More

SPORTS;

Boxer Mustafa Katende collapses in training, dies; Mr Dan Kasole, the head coach of Police Boxing Club said Katende, a regular, passionate trainee here, was reluctant to work out this morning, seemingly not feeling fine. But when Ayub Kalule, his main trainer came, he put on the gloves. Read More

And finally; Police offers Besigye, Lukwago extra security amid assassination threats; the order by Ochola follows a written communication from Lukwago on June 27, indicating that he, Besigye and Bobi Wine had received threats on social media against their lives. Read More

Today's scripture; Deuteronomy 20:4

ESKOMorning quote; "It's not the person who dodges the most bullets who wins. It's the person who finds something useful to do with the bullets, after the shots have been fired." By - Ash Ambirge

Visit our Facebook page;

Follow Us on Twitter;

Follow the Managing Director/CEO;

<http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

@Eskomug

@Eskom_MD