

25th May 2022

POLITICS:

-Kyagulanyi urges NUP leaders to exercise servant leadership.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Oil project-affected persons get land titles after 10 years.

NATIONAL:

-Uganda leads East Africa in fully switching to e-passport

REGIONAL:

-Fighting breaks out near eastern DR Congo city of Goma.

COURT:

-Bitature vs Vantage.

HEALTH:

-Museveni meets Sinovac vaccine manufacturers.

BUSINESS:

-Tax evaders face huge penalties as Kasaija hunts for revenue.

SPORTS:

-She Cranes in camp.

Note, "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL:

Kyagulanyi urges NUP leaders to exercise servant leadership; the NUP president, Robert Kyagulanyi has challenged all his party-sponsored politicians to serve the interests of their electorates, rather than seeking short term selfish gains. Story

ENERGY NEWS:

Oil project-affected persons get land titles after 10 years; oil refinery project-affected persons in Hoima District, who have been under the threat of eviction, have been given land titles after nearly 10 years of waiting. Story

NATIONAL:

Uganda leads East Africa in fully switching to e-passport; Uganda has become the first East African Country to fully shift to the new electronic passport, beating fellow EAC members who have been deferring the implementation deadline for the new secure documents. Story

REGIONAL:

Fighting breaks out near eastern DR Congo city of Goma; fighting erupted near the city of Goma in eastern Democratic Republic of Congo Tuesday, residents and local officials said, a day after neighbouring Rwanda accused the Congolese army of shelling its territory. Story

COURT:

Bitature vs Vantage; the Commercial Division of the High Court in Kampala has dismissed an application by Ugandan businessman Patrick Bitature and Simba properties Co. Ltd, Simba telecom, Linda properties and Elgon Terrace seeking a temporary injunction against Vantage and its agencies from commencing any private prosecution or legal action until final disposal of a pending contempt of court case. Story

HEALTH:

Museveni meets Sinovac vaccine manufacturers; President Museveni has met with a team from the Chinese biopharmaceutical company, Sinovac, over plans to start manufacturing vaccines and drugs. Story

BUSINESS:

Tax evaders face huge penalties as Kasaija hunts for revenue; to mobilize money needed to finance the upcoming national budget, Finance minister Kasaija will fall back on an old strategy for guidance dangle tax incentives to businesses with large capital investments, drag more smaller and informal enterprises into the tax net, and clamp down on those trying to beat the system. Story

SPORTS:

She Cranes in camp; twenty one out of the 28 local based netball players who were invited for national team duty in preparation for the Commonwealth Games due July-August in Birmingham, England started their daily drills on Sunday at the Kamwokya Community Centre. Story

And finally; Besigye arrested in downtown Kampala; political activist Dr Kizza Besigye on Tuesday eluded security operatives at his home in Kasangati, Wakiso District and made his way to downtown Kampala before he was intercepted at Arua Park. Story

Today's scripture; Psalms 23

ESKOMorning quote; "We must accept finite disappointment, but never lose infinite hope." By- Martin Luther King

Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD