

31st May 2022

POLITICS:

-Deputy Lord Mayor Nyanjura, MP Adeke remanded for inciting violence.

ENERGY NEWS:

-ERA, UBTEB sign MOU to increase certified electricians in Uganda.

NATIONAL:

-Govt names accounting officers sleeping on job.

REGIONAL:

-AU asks Angolan president to mediate in Congo-Rwanda crisis.

COURT:

-Kanyehamba seeks to withdraw bail petition against Museveni.

HEALTH:

-Nurses, leaders split over strike.

BUSINESS:

-Tullow to stand with Africa on oil and gas investments.

SPORTS:

-Crested Cranes confident of serving goals dish at Cecafo.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Deputy Lord Mayor Nyanjura, MP Adeke remanded for inciting violence; the Soroti District Woman Member of Parliament Adeke Anna and Kampala Capital City Deputy Lord Mayor Nyanjura Doreen, are among the six people that have been remanded to Luzira prison for staging an unlawful assembly and inciting violence. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

ERA, UBTEB sign MOU to increase certified electricians in Uganda; the ERA has penned an agreement with the UBTEB, technical, vocational, education, and training examination body that is aimed at growing the number of certified electricians in the sector. Story

NATIONAL;

Govt names accounting officers sleeping on job; govt knocks out 18 accounting officers. A document, referred to as an internal memo in the Finance ministry, shows that at least 301 accounting officers out of 319 will be eligible for reappointment. Story

REGIONAL;

AU asks Angolan president to mediate in Congo-Rwanda crisis; Senegal President Macky Sall, who chairs the Africa Union, on Sunday called for dialogue between the Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda as tensions escalate between the two countries over a resurgence of the M23 rebel group. Story

COURT;

Kanyehamba seeks to withdraw bail petition against Museveni; retired Supreme Court Judge, Prof George Kanyehamba, wants the Constitutional Court to drop his petition challenging the scrapping of bail for capital offenders, as the hearing date is set. Story

HEALTH;

Nurses, leaders split over strike; the nurses and midwives in public service did not report for work in hospitals yesterday despite the cancellation of their strike by their union leadership. Story

BUSINESS;

Tullow to stand with Africa on oil and gas investments; Tullow Oil says it will continue operations in Africa despite plans by other operators to shift from the continent. The Anglo-Irish Oil and gas operator has over 30 licenses across eight countries in Africa and South America. Story

SPORTS;

Crested Cranes confident of serving goals dish at Cecafo; Crested Cranes coach George Lutalo remains optimistic his team will get goals when the Cecafo Women Championship starts on Wednesday at Fufa Technical Centre, Njeru. Story

And finally; Pilgrim dies shortly after reaching Namugongo; there is a somber mood at the Uganda Martyrs Anglican Shrine following the death of one of the pilgrims. Jackline Arinaitwe, 49, a resident of Katokori village, Katanda sub county in Rubirizi district collapsed to death mid-Monday morning. Story

Today's scripture; Proverbs 13:6

ESKOMorning quote; "May your choices reflect your hopes, not your fears." By-Nelson Mandela

Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD