

16th June 2022

POLITICS;

-MPs get Shs40m each in fresh budget deal.

ENERGY NEWS

-Oil processing facility to be completed by end of year.

NATIONAL;

-Govt invites teachers for talks as strike starts.

REGIONAL;

-Kenya president urges deployment of regional force in DR Congo.

COURT;

-Bitature considers appealing court decision on sale of properties.

GRAFT;

-Janet halts distribution of donated funds, items to schools.

BUSINESS;

-Russia-Ukraine conflict hurting East Africa's business community.

SPORTS;

-Sports budget more than doubled, NCS happy

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL.

MPs get Shs40m each in fresh budget deal; MP have reportedly each been paid Shs40m in a deal that involved approval of a supplementary request, including Shs77b for State House. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Oil processing facility to be completed by end of year; in Kasenyi village, Ngwedo subcounty of Buliisa district is a place that has been chosen to anchor a central processing facility, a key organ in the long-awaited oil production scheduled for 2025. The facility, which is under construction, will be hosted on a 700-acre piece of land. Story

NATIONAL;

Govt invites teachers for talks as strike starts; the government yesterday invited disgruntled teachers for talks and rebuked the planned strike over "discriminatory salary enhancement". Story

REGIONAL;

Kenya president urges deployment of regional force in DR Congo; Kenyan President Uhuru Kenyatta on Wednesday called for the deployment of a regional force to restore security in the Democratic Republic of Congo's violence-torn east, where heavy fighting has revived old animosities. Story

COURT;

Bitature considers appealing court decision on sale of properties; businessman Patrick Bitature has indicated that he is considering appealing against the High Court's ruling that okayed the auctioning of his properties. Story

GRAFT;

Janet halts distribution of donated funds, items to schools; URN has learnt that other organizations have been honouring their commitments from the beginning of the year. According to ministry sources, a significant sum of money, as well as other physical assets, have already been gathered from ten institutions. However, there have been suspicions that some officials were planning to take some of the funds and items. Story

BUSINESS;

Russia-Ukraine conflict hurting East Africa's business community; John Bosco Kalisa, the chief executive officer of the EABC, told journalists in Nairobi, the capital of Kenya, that the crisis has disrupted global supply chains and has been devastating given the substantial amount of products that are imported from the two nations. Story

SPORTS;

Sports budget more than doubled, NCS happy; NCS general secretary Dr. Bernard Patrick Ogwel, believes the increase of the sports budget from Shs17bn to Shs47bn is a vote of confidence in the performances of all stakeholders in the sub-sector. Story

And finally; Man arrested after killing grandmother over witchcraft; police in Bundibugyo District in western Uganda are holding a 40-year-old man on murder charges after he allegedly killed his grandmother whom he accused of bewitching his twin brother who died in a boat accident. Story

Today's scripture; John 14:15

ESKOMorning quote; "It is amazing how much you can accomplish when it doesn't matter who gets the credit". By- Harry S. Truman

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD