

24th June 2022

POLITICS:

-Teachers' pay must correspond, MPs insist.

ENERGY NEWS

-Umeme sensitizes Bugisu communities against power theft.

NATIONAL:

-Uganda, Kenya sign framework to transit fish without interference

REGIONAL:

-World leaders descend on Kigali for Commonwealth summit.

COURT:

-Besigye, Mukaku apply for bail in High court

HEALTH:

-HIV patients cautioned against abandoning treatment.

BUSINESS:

-Cooking gas prices rise by 30 percent.

SPORTS:

-Boxer Nanziri back in ring.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
http://www.eskom.co.ug

POLITICAL.

Teachers' pay must correspond, MPs insist; in a press conference held on Thursday, 23 June 2022 at Parliament, MPs expressed discontent with the decision taken by government giving teachers a two-day ultimatum within which to cease their industrial action. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Umeme sensitizes Bugisu communities against power theft; as a way of reducing the high number of illegal connections in Bugisu region and country at large, electricity distributor Umeme has launched a sensitization drive against power theft. Story

NATIONAL;

Uganda, Kenya sign framework to transit fish without interference; the ministry of Agriculture, Animal Industry and Fisheries together with its Kenyan counterpart have signed a framework for the smooth transit of fish from Lake Turkana in Kenya to the DRC through Uganda without interference. Story

REGIONAL;

World leaders descend on Kigali for Commonwealth summit; an array of presidents and prime ministers continued to descend on Rwanda Thursday from around the world for the Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting in Kigali. Story

COURT;

Besigye, Mukaku apply for bail in High court; Dr. Kiiza Besigye and activist Samuel Lubega Mukaku have applied for bail in the Criminal Division of the High Court in Kampala. Story

HEALTH;

HIV patients cautioned against abandoning treatment; persons Living with HIV/AIDS in greater Arua have been urged to stick to treatment despite the soaring food and other commodity prices. Currently, there are over 400 registered HIV positive patients in Arua city and over 600 in Arua district, who are struggling to survive.

BUSINESS;

Cooking gas prices rise by 30 percent; prices of cooking gas, which is also known as liquefied petroleum gas, have increased by an average of 30 percent, according to a market survey conducted. Story

SPORTS

Boxer Nanziri back in ring; Boxing promotions company A&B will have Catherine Nanziri headlining their fights this Friday, June 24 at PTC Lounge in Bulenga off Mityana road. Story

And finally; Police recover stolen Pallisa twins in Kampala; police in Kampala have recovered three-month-old twins who were reportedly stolen from Eastern Uganda on June 9 in a fake NGO sponsorship deal. Story

Today's scripture; Psalms 100:5

ESKOMorning quote; "The only way to achieve the impossible is to believe it is possible." By- Charles Kingsleigh

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD

+