

28th June 2022

POLITICS;

-NUP cites ruling party's invisible hand in Kibalama saga.

ENERGY NEWS

-Ethiopia says Tigray fuel shortage 'a myth'

NATIONAL;

-EC suspends women council elections over lack of funds.

REGIONAL;

-South Sudan still verifying unpaid suppliers.

COURT;

-Rwanda's closure of border with Uganda was illegal.

HEALTH;

-Govt asks hospitals to reserve 10 beds for Covid-19 patients as cases remerge.

EDUCATION;

-Govt threatens worsen teachers strike crisis.

BUSINESS;

-Govt concerned over continued adulteration of milk.

SPORTS;

-Proscovia in shape for Commonwealth Games.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL.

NUP cites ruling party's invisible hand in Kibalama saga; NUP deputy spokesperson Alex Waisswa Mufumbiro said the party's disagreements with a faction led by the party's founding leader, Mr. Moses Nkonge Kibalama, is a plot by the regime to divert the Opposition party from pushing for issues of national importance. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Ethiopia says Tigray fuel shortage 'a myth'; Ethiopia on Thursday described fuel shortages in the war-racked Tigray region as a "myth" and accused Tigrayan rebels of seeking to launch a new offensive. Story

NATIONAL;

EC suspends women council elections over lack of funds; speaking at a consultative meeting at Gogonyo county in Pallisa district, Electoral Commission chairperson, Justice Simon Byabakama said that the ministry of Finance informed the commission that there are no funds for conducting the activities. According to the roadmap, the nominations of candidates were scheduled to start this week. Story

REGIONAL;

South Sudan still verifying unpaid suppliers; South Sudan is verifying Ugandan suppliers who have not been paid for supply of goods and services. Story

COURT;

Rwanda's closure of border with Uganda was illegal; the closure of the Gatuna border with Uganda by Rwanda was illegal and contravened the East African Community Treaty, the East African Court of Justice has ruled. Story

HEALTH;

Govt asks hospitals to reserve 10 beds for Covid-19 patients as cases remerge; the government through the ministry of Health has directed hospitals across the country to reserve at least ten beds for people who present with Covid-19 signs and symptoms. Story

EDUCATION;

Govt threatens worsen teachers strike crisis; classes have remained under lock and key despite the government threats and pressure on teachers to return to class or risk losing their jobs. Story

BUSINESS;

Govt concerned over continued adulteration of milk; the DDA is concerned about the continued adulteration of milk, posing health, quality, and standard challenges. Story

SPORTS

Proscovia in shape for Commonwealth Games; the former Loughborough Lightning and Sunshine Coast Lightning shooter banged 853 goals in 20 fixtures. She was also awarded the Players' Best Player of the season and the Best Fairest Player for her league side Surrey Storm which finished seventh in the English Vitality Netball League. Story

And finally; 4-year-old girl enrolled on HIV treatment after being defiled by 56-year-old man; a four-year-old girl in Luwero district has been enrolled on post-exposure prophylaxis to protect her from contracting HIV/Aids after being defiled by a 56-year-old man. Story

Today's scripture; Luke 15:7

ESKOMorning quote; "Start where you are. Use what you have. Do what you can."

By- Arthur Ashe

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD

+